

An illustration of three glass jars filled with baby food. The left jar contains a green puree, the middle one an orange puree, and the right one a red puree. Each jar has a dollop of its respective puree on top. A sprig of green parsley is tucked behind the jars. Surrounding the jars are various fresh vegetables: a purple radish, a carrot, a yellow lemon, a red tomato, a green bell pepper, a brown sweet potato, and a head of purple garlic. Three green peas are scattered at the bottom. A white rectangular box with a thin black border is centered over the jars, containing the text 'MY FIRST SOLIDS' in a black, handwritten-style font.
