

Free Association Learning Tool

What is association learning anyways?

- It's a way we group information together in one associative memory.
- This learning tool teaches children how to group things that go together.
- It is a very important concept for them, to use and develop, for future success with understanding how 'similar' items relate.

Help Mr. Rooster complete these sheets!

Circle or point to the things that go in the refrigerator

Help Mr.
Rooster

Help Mr. Rooster

Point to or draw a line to show where each thing goes.

Point to or circle the things that belong in the bathroom

Help Mr. Rooster

Point to or circle the things that go in the cleaning closet

Help Mr.
Rooster

